THE COMMISSIONERS ARE NOW ANXIOUS TO

MEET-THE MAYOR MAKES A STATEMENT. At the next meeting of the Rapid Transit Commissioners the Manhattan Elevated Railway Company will probably present to the Commission new proposition for the control of the rapid transit privilege. It was said yesterday that at the meeting of the Manhattan directors, held on Tuesday, the latest development in rapid transit situation was the principal topic of discussion, and that it was decided to make a proposition to the Commission, based upon Mr. Starin's $175,000 suggestion and Mr. Spencer's compromise offer. All the Commissioners but Mr. Spencer were in the city yesterday, but no meeting was held. Mr. Spencer, who is in Saratoga, has been informed of the willingness of the other Commissioners to meet again, and it is expected that he will return to New-York in a few days. A meeting will then be held, and the chances are that the resignations will be withdrawn and a satisfactory agreement reached.

Commissioner Inman said yesterday that he was much pleased at the turn affairs had taken, and expressed his willingness to continue to serve on the Commission if there was hope of arriving at a result of some kind. He thinks that the Commissioners and the Manhattan Company will be able to reach an understanding. Mr. Starin is ready to meet the other Commissioners at any time, and to listen to any fair proposition they may suggest.

WHAT MR. STEINWAY THINKS. Mr. Steinway has not received any communication from Mayor Gilroy. He said yesterday that he would not abandon rapid transit for the present if it could be shown at the next meeting of the Commission that a conclusion agreeable to all could be reached.

It was not my intention when we resigned, said Mr. Steinway, "that the Commission should go infimediately out of business. I was anxious n, and am still anxious to have another meeting of the Commissioners, for we are yet Commisners, and have a certain duty to perform. I think that when we meet again there will be more barmony among the Commissioners, and that those have resigned will reconsider their action I wish to be relieved from the work as soon as possible on account of my health. The other men will probably remain and some one will be appointed in my place."

It is evident that something has happened to bring about such a change of opinion in the minds of the four Commissioners. Less than a week ago they asserted that they would have nothing more to do with rapid transit, and now they are willing, and even anxious, to go on with the work. In the last week they have held numerous conferences with each other and several with the Mayor. They waited patiently for the resignation of Mr. Starin, and when he showed no inclination to do as they wished they began to think that they had been too hasty in leaving Mr. Starin alone on the Commission, and so they are now going back either to try to influence him or else to listen to his sound ideas on rapid transit and the obligations of a big corporation to the city. MAYOR GILROY'S STATEMENT.

When Mayor Gilroy left his office at the clos business hours yesterday he was obliged to say that there was no rapid transit news. One of the Commissioners was absent from the city, and the Mayor found it impossible to give a definite answer to questions as to what resulmay come from the latest effort to unite and mize the Commission in a way that will warrant any certainty that progress can be made. The Mayor, however, reiterated his determination not to accept the resignations now in his hands until fully convinced that no good can come out of the Commission as it stands now. In explanation of his attitude the Mayor made this interest-tion of his attitude the Mayor made this interesting statement:

My position has been so differently defined by different persons and newspapers, and my reasons for the conclusions I am said to have reached have been so variously interpreted in various quarters, that I am not satisfied to await the results of a meeting of the Commission before expressing an opinion. My desire is that the people of the City of New-york should have, if possible, some benefit for the public moneys which have been expended to maintain this Commission. It has been in existence over two years, and an expenditure of over $120,000 has been made on its account. Its investigations have been very comprehensive, and its members may be fairly assumed to be conversant with all the plans that any of the parties interested had to propose. Citizens generally, inventors, capitalists and the representatives of corporations have all favored this Commission with their suggestions and plans. Anything that any one has had to offer has been brought to their attention. Their expert knowledge has been gained at the expense of the city. Unless some result is reached by them, there is no way in which this money can be returned to the city under the provisions of the law, making these expenses a charge upon the purchasers of franchises, no way to get back any of the money thus far expended. In order that the experience and knowledge of these Commissioners may he utilized for the benefit of the city, and in order that this amount of the city is money shall not prove to have been expended fruitiessly. I have determined not to accept at present the resignations of the Commissioners now in my hands. I will not accept them unless I become fully convinced that it is hopeless to expect from the Commissions as at present constituted the relief that the city so argently needs in the matter of transit facilities. This conviction may come after the next megting or it may not dome for several meetings. I feel that before considering the appointment of a new commission

William Fletcher, dismissed; Henry T. Serf. gatkeeper, in place of Lawrence Lamb, dismissed, and John T. McMahon, deputy warden, temporarily. ject to a Civil Service examination, in place of Mark Finley, resigned. The new men have begun their service. The removals were on account of the escape of John Meyer, the burglar, from the prison. Cap-tain John Orr, of the night watch, has until July 1 to resign.
